

BELOVED GHANA APOSTOLIC TEAM

In the years ahead, Apostle Sefa will be called on to be an Apostle to Ghana. He will not be the only one, but he is the only one we are responsible for.

His time here on the Mission base is his training and equipping time.

So it is my intention to set up an Apostolic team, led by him. The members of this team have yet to be found. They will already exist all over Ghana, and we need to link them together, to train them and get them to support each other in the years ahead.

The centre for this team will be the Emmaus school, now renamed Emmaus Bible and Apostolic school. I will train this team.

I am appointing Apostle Mary to this team, and inviting Apostle Paul to consider other people. We will then invite them to a training course here at the base, and see where we go.

The call to pray, and the call to survive the struggles ahead which Ghana will face has now to be placed in the hands of the Apostles.

This I now intend to do.
